

WHEN I CALLED, YOU ANSWERED

ME... (PSALM 138:3)

This portion of Psalm 138 is the theme for the 2010 Archbishop's Annual Appeal and will be expanded upon by Archbishop O'Brien in his homily on Commitment Weekend, February 6-7, 2010. The programs, ministries, and services funded by the Archbishop's Annual Appeal offer not only direct assistance to individuals and families, but also offer assistance to parishes and schools as they carry out their missions in every area of the Archdiocese. In many cases, these are answers to the prayers of the people served.

Last year, our parish family contributed $111,652 dollars to the appeal – a very generous response of 151% of our goal, for which I am very genuinely thankful, not just for meeting our targeted contribution, but for responding from a level of faith and trust, that God will not be outdone in generosity when we commit ourselves as faithful stewards to his work.

The Annual Appeal also provides a teachable moment. It allows parish leaders the opportunity to talk about the connectedness of our Church. Every time that we say the Creed, we reaffirm the fact that we are members of the "One, Holy, Catholic, and Apostolic Church." However, often people don't reflect on the meaning of these words. The Appeal provides an opportunity to reflect upon the fact that every Catholic is part of a local Church and of the Universal Church. Each of us is responsible not only for his or her parish, but also for the well being of the Church throughout our Archdiocese and throughout the world.
