A Prayer Along the Way.....for Holy Week

Lord Jesus, I join with You as You take each step toward Your death and resurrection. Unlike Pilate, I want to be able to take responsibility for all my actions. I fear condemnation. I need the strength to become one of those who condemn others.

As I take up my cross along the way, I need You there, so I will not fall. I ask Your Mother, Mary, to support me along the way. I want to join Simon and Veronica as they meet You, offering my hands and my heart to those in need.

Each time I fall, I need the courage to get up and face the day again. I weep not for You, as I did the women of Jerusalem, but for my own sinfulness. I ask for forgiveness. I ask for forgiveness each time that I fall.

In my naked spirit I see who I really am and I see the person I must become through death, death on the cross of my own selfishness and self-centeredness. I must die, die to myself and wait in hope to be taken down from the cross to have my old self buried only to rise again with You in Love. Amen.
